

THE WESTCOTT SEMINAR

Lent Term 2012

Open to all

Mondays • 4.30-5.45 pm • Westcott Lecture Room

WESTCOTT
HOUSE

23 January

What makes for good writing?

Andrew Davison, Westcott's Tutor in Doctrine, has written or contributed to a number of books over the past five years and is known also for his writing for Church Times. In the second of a series of stand alone talks he will continue his reflection on what makes for clear and incisive writing.

30 January

Bishop Richard Llewellyn

Bishop Richard will speak about his recent three-month visit to Israel and Palestine as ecumenical accompanier in a programme sponsored by the World Council of Churches. He will discuss his experiences living among the Palestinian people as an advocate for human rights, just peace and non-violent solutions to the current situation. Bishop Richard trained at Westcott and has been Bishop of St Germans, Bishop of Dover and Bishop at Lambeth.

6 February

Adult Education and Learning IV - Learning together as a PCC

Professor Reg Wickett continues his series of talks on the theory and practice of adult education

13 February

Adult Education and Learning V - Approaches to parish Bible studies

20 February

Mission, Fresh Expressions and Pioneer Ministry

Dave Male, Tutor for Pioneer Learning at Westcott and Ridley Hall, will discuss with Andrew Davison themes from their recent books on mission, fresh expressions and the vocation and task of the pioneer minister

27 February

Adult Education and Learning VI - Mentoring parish workers in learning

5 March

Amy-Jill Levine - The Parables in First-Century Jewish Context

Amy-Jill Levine is an internationally renowned Jewish New Testament scholar. She is currently E Rhodes and Leona B Carpenter Professor of New Testament Studies at Vanderbilt University Divinity School, the Graduate Department of Religion, and the Program in Jewish Studies.

12 March

Student Presentations

Students from Westcott House in their final year will discuss substantial projects carried out this term

Wednesday 14 March

The Holy Eucharist: the paradigm that does not shift

Ralph McMichael, an Episcopal priest and Director of the Center for the Eucharist, St Louis, USA, will speak and lead a discussion